	approx. 4,6 x 4,7 m (L, W)

In the Play House “Kitchen House”, young children can imitate to their heart’s content everything they see on a daily basis at home or in the nursery. They can cook and bake, put things away on the shelves, serve meals and buy groceries. This results in a lively game of give and take, and of stirring and building, in which the very young can learn social skills and interact with each other.
